Palms Beach to Open Wednesday

A conditioned and faster track will be opened by the Palm Beach Kennel club next Wednesday afternoon at West Palm Beach. According to the club's schedule, the track was made yesterday by officials of the club. An entire new lighting system was installed, and the parking lot and new lights have also been erected at the track.

Finishing line, a different type of mechanical bunny will be used this year and officials of the club believe that is a decided improvement over the old one.

The grandstand has been re-decorated throughout and every

The tragic drowning of an entire family of four in a roadside canal on State Road 25 Sunday afternoon gave impetus to the determined efforts of county officials and civic bodies to eliminate this highway hazard. The fatal accident occurred Sunday at the intersection of State Road 25 and Strickland. Twenty-five Bend bridge tender, plunged into the waters of the canal after skidding off the highway. The driver, Oscar Strickland, 34, his wife, Ida Mae Strickland, 37, and their two children, Oscar Strickland, 10, and Ida Mae Strickland, 24, days of

The drowning of the Strickland family Sunday brought the total number of deaths on this stretch of highway to six. The Stricklands were en route to the bridge and Twenty-Mile Bend 15 for the past year. More than 70 accidents have occurred on the highway during the past year, as was reported by the sheriff's office.

President Stanley Peeler of the Western Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce called a meeting of the highways committee Tuesday morning and drafted a telegram that was sent to Chairman Chas. E. Ter Braund of the State Road department.

The committee decided to enlist the aid of the local business community in the campaign. Requests that they send telegrams to Tallahassee were forwarded to the Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce, the St. Johns River Water Chamber of Commerce, the Delray Beach Kiwanis club, the Palm Beach Kiwanis club, the Palm Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion Post, the Phoenix Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Palm Beach. These civic bodies responded with strongly worded telegrams to Gov. Dave Sholtz and the U. S. Congress.

Two sections of Road 25, from Belle Glade to Six Mile Bridge, and the section of Road 25 from Twenty Mile Bend, have been built, but the intervening link, 14 miles long, remains to be constructed. The last section which has taken 15 years this year, including the largely Sunday.

Since Hon. Fred P. Cone is a native Floridian the Pahokee Junior Chamber of Commerce has made plans to take 50 native Floridians to Tallahassee to take part in the inaugural parade on Tuesday. So next Tuesday morning, whenever the Tallahassee will have their first opportunity to see real honest-to-goodness Seminole Indians in full regalia as they step to the tune of the many bands in the parade.

Dr. B. F. Hughes, president of the fair association, stated that the regalia that all groups are complete after the trip and that the group will leave Pahokee early Sunday morning for the capital city.

Freshly cleaned and pressed and brightly colored silks will garb the members of the group as they march in the grandest pageant ever staged here.

Billionaires from these states will have new tags from their states or purchase Florida tags. W. E. Van Loan, inspector at the state fair grounds, said this week in Dade county.

The states where the tags will expire on December 31 are Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

The idea was original with the chamber president and when members of the body were informed that such a plan would create favorable publicity for Pahokee and the Lake region, the United States and wholehearted support was forthcoming. Trucks will be used to transport the Seminoles and a joyous holiday is in store for them next week.

Happy New Year!

Learn to write it 1937.

Was 1936 good to you?

Today is the day to make those resolutions.

January 1. The day of ball games and bowl games.

Resolutions are made to be kept. Not to be broken.

Glades growers are interested in what the new year holds in the way of better bean prices.

Tuesday will mark the close of Governor Sholtz' administration.

One of the most costly the state has ever experienced.

All roads lead to Tallahassee next Tuesday for the inauguration.

Excitement has been made to care for one of the largest crowds ever to visit the capital city.

With a little initiative on your part and the meager assistance of Dame Fortune, you should be able to show up a winning score in 1937. Don't sit back and wait for something worthwhile to come your way. Go get it.

As a whole residents of the Lake Okechobee region have been blessed during the year just past.

No one has gone hungry.

There have been jobs for those who wanted them and on Saturday a decent payroll.

Roadside canals in the Lake Okechobee region have claimed to live during the past year.

A new road board will take office next after Governor Cone's inauguration. Let's hope this new organization will give the roads of our section some immediate attention.

Boys and girls will soon start back to school after a two week holiday. Up until the Christmas season officials of schools in the Everglades were well pleased with progress of the institutions.

With the co-operation of the students and parents the second half can be made even better.

After next Tuesday it will be Governor Cone. The Lake City banker goes into office with free hands and should go down in history as the best governor this great state has ever had. There is plenty of room for improvement in existing conditions and let us hope that the new governor will take advantage of his opportunities.

Jim Let's List of Employees of the State of Florida, has made interesting reading for those who are seeking jobs at the hands of the new governor.

Departments and with salary amounts shown it makes it easy for the job hunter to pick the one he wants. Then try and get it. The list didn't show, however, the amounts allowed for expenses.

That would be interesting also.

A BETTER SANTA

It is one of the minor tragedies of life that each Christmas brings a measure of disillusionment to some children who have visualized Santa Claus as the flesh-and-blood donor of their pleasure story of Santa in the tropics. The jolly saint survives through generations of mal-made stories as a person dundie for an entire night, driving a sleigh whose reindeer jingled their bells with every graceful leap over the drifts. To rob Santa in a bathing suit, sit him in an airplane and land him with bathing beauties on every side would give evidence that the Virginia of that old newspaper classic reasonable and almost irrefutable grounds for skepticism.

Each season brings evidence to the eye and ear that destroys the fancy of Santa Claus for the youngsters. For a few years they will grope around for some substitute. Finding none that is tangible, they will shrink Santa in their hearts as the symbol of Christ's birth and let it go at that.

Perhaps it is better so. The Santa Claus of the sleigh and the reindeer is a gift conception, held only for the gifts brought by the Santa that lurks in nearly every grown-up's heart is a benefactor, thinking more of giving than of receiving. With that kind of Santa, we need not quibble about costume or jingling bells.

AN OPEN LETTER

TO THE
STATE ROAD DEPARTMENT OF FLORIDA

Members of the Department,
Tallahassee, Florida,

Gentlemen:

Stark tragedy stalked the banks of a roadside canal on State Road No. 25 between West Palm Beach and Belle Glade Sunday afternoon and the lives of a family of four were snuffed out in the twinkling of an eye when their car left this treacherous highway and came to a halt bottom side up in the canal. This tragedy is not the first which has taken lives of our citizens during the year of 1936 on this most treacherous and disgraceful piece of road in the state highway system. During the past twelve months a total of 15 lives have been lost on this stretch of so-called highway.

Your immediate attention and correction of this death trap is urged by every citizen of Palm Beach county. Casting aside all thoughts that immediate improvement is necessary for commercial purposes, it is now imperative that it be done as a humanitarian movement. You are assured of the wholehearted co-operation and the undying friendship of those in this section for your urgent attention and immediate improvement of this road.

Had any one of you been present Sunday afternoon when a wrecker pulled the car from the canal and witnessed the sight that unfolded before the eyes of onlookers, I dare say that double tracking of highways in other sections of the state would have been shunted into the back-ground as immediate plans were made to correct this existing condition. Could you have seen the bodies of an entire family recovered from the waters of the canal I believe that your entire membership would have been unanimous in your thoughts that it is a condition which can be and should be remedied at once.

This section of Florida is growing as fast, if not faster, than any other farming section of the state and our entire system of highways in the Lake Okechobee region has been long outmoded. What served this section even five years ago is inadequate today as the Lake region forges steadily ahead as the outstanding agricultural community of Florida and the winter market basket of the nation.

Too long have we in this section sat idly by as other sections of the state demanded and received first class highways. The time is propitious when something must be done and done at once to remedy the existing situation. A great and glorious state, such as Florida, cannot allow its citizenry to be thus endangered and a great community to be exploited as a hazardous one in which to drive a motor car. We urge and beg of you to do those things, which when completed, will make motoring in the Lake Okechobee region a pleasure instead of a hazard.

As members of the highway department it is your duty and should be your pleasure to correct this dire situation. We shall be grateful for a complete revamping of the highway system in the Lake Okechobee region in order that those who are guaranteed life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness may realize these things in a meager way as they go about their duties of pursuing a livelihood.

Yours very truly,
PAUL RARDIN.

Senator Pepper Weds Miss Webster

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 31— (FNS)—Senator Claude Pepper, Florida's newly elected spokesman in Washington, and Miss Mildred Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Webster of this city, were quietly united in marriage Tuesday morning.

The quiet ceremony, performed in the presence only of immediate members of the two families came as a complete surprise to many friends of the Senator and Mrs. Pepper. Throughout the state has been no previous public announcement of their engagement. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Reverend John L. Horton, pastor of the First Methodist church.

wish hypochondriac and George Hassell her hen-pecked spouse. Baxter joins this group, hundreds of miles away from civilization, and then discovers that the man he is to guide on the hunt is his bitter enemy, Lawson, who years before had caused his ruin in England and subsequent exile.

A tense, hate-laden atmosphere oppresses the entire group as Lawson and Patrick realize they are within Baxter's power.

Patrick confronts Baxter with being a former Under-Secretary in the British War office and tries to reawaken the spark of an old passion he once had for her. Baxter, his mind obscured by his desire for revenge, refuses her.

June Lang, who is unaware of the terrible hatred existing between her father and the white hunter develops a strong attachment for the latter which turns into love when Baxter saves her life.

Lawson, believing that Baxter is trying to hurt him through his daughter, confronts him in a duel.

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 31— (FNS)—It's about time for Floridians to turn over a new leaf in their safety book, for curbing of deaths by accidents, fireworks and stabbings at a dance hall, would make outsiders, even in bloody Spain, think "this nation of fools" people are still barbarous," declares Mr. Frank. Tabulation of accidents at the safety director's office reveals that on Christmas nearly 350 persons were injured through automobile accidents. One boy was killed and 60 persons injured by fireworks.

"Let's start the New Year off with the cautiousness and common sense that God gave us," says Mr. Frank in his New Year's message to the motoring public of the state.

"White Hunter" At The Everglades Theatre Sun. Mon.

A man and a woman trying to hate while fierce, longing flames in their hearts is the thrilling theme of "Twentieth Century Fox's amazing drama of suspense, passion, 'White Hunter,' which plays Sunday and Monday at the Belle Glade Theatre.

Warner Baxter and June Lang, who created such a sensation in "The Road to Glory" are brilliantly cast in a drama even stranger, a romance even greater, the most stirring adventure a man and woman ever shared.

Assisting the star is an excellent and impressive cast headed by Gail Patrick, Allison Skipworth, Wilfrid Lawson, and George Hassell.

Baxter is seen as a colorful hunter who accepts a commission to guide a big game expedition through a strangely wild country. Included in the party are Wilfrid Lawson, a powerful sunition magnate, Gail Patrick, his wayward wife, and lovely June Lang, his daughter by a former marriage. Allison Skipworth a shrew-

STATE WANTS TO PUT LAND BACK ON ROLL FOR TAX

Hopes to Bring Much Of 17,000,000 Acres To Tax Rolls

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 30.—Copies of a proposed bill which the State Planning Board hopes will bring back much of the 17,000,000 acres of tax delinquent land to the tax rolls have been given members of the Legislature for study.

The measure would give special consideration to original owners by providing a method of recovery of property at low rates and terms of payments, and give him exclusive right to redeem the property for one year after it is sold for taxes and the certificates pass to the state.

If unredeemed, the law would provide a way for the state to improve the property to make it attractive to other buyers, or, failing that, title would pass to the state and the land would become part of the reforestation or other program so as to make it an attractive buy at some future date by a citizen taxpayer.

The bill would give maximum protection to the state, county and other taxing unit, it was said. After the states takes tax certificate against property, the law provides for an appraisal to determine whether its value is less than the accrued delinquent taxes. If it is less, the law provides for the original owner to apply for redemption within one year. He may at that time acquire it for the appraised value, but in no event more than the taxes due, and have ten years in which to pay the amount at interest rates not exceeding 5 per cent on unpaid balances.

Redemption, or sale to other persons after failure to redeem, will carry clear titles, complete, new and independent, originating in the state's sovereign power and free from all prior liens and clouds upon the title.

OUR WISH FOR YOU!

During the year just closed we have greatly enjoyed the privilege of serving you. Without your loyalty and patronage we would have been merely "in business," but with your good will and friendship we have enjoyed the feeling that our efforts to serve you well had received your approbation.

It is therefore, on this first day of January, that we wish to greet you and wish you well. You, our friends, have made our progress and growth possible, and we would feel ungrateful indeed if we failed to wish you from the bottom of our hearts—

A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

Stage All Set—

this particular song was the incoming governor's theme song during the primaries.

From 4:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon open house will hold at the executive mansion and again Governor and Mrs. Cone will greet their thousands of friends from every town and city in the state. Plans have been made by the committee to care for the largest crowd ever to attend an inauguration because the incoming governor has thousands of friends and many relatives scattered throughout the 67 counties of the state.

With a bumper crop of rice on the market, this is a good year to remember that rice is a satisfactory "extender" for meat and gravy dishes, such as chicken with gravy, Swiss steak, or cured lamb or pork.
